

Education Consumers Foundation

About The Education Consumers Foundation

The Education Consumers Foundation is a nonprofit organization founded in 2005. The Foundation is dedicated to serving the interests of education's consumers who are seeking clear, objective, and independent information on education policy and practice.

The Foundation's current programs include:

- The Value-Added Achievement Awards - an annual awards program recognizing Tennessee's most effective elementary and middle school principals.
- The Education Consumers Consultants Network - a partnership of experienced scholars and educators who work on behalf of clients to examine the pros and cons of educational policies, plans, reforms, or innovations.
- Briefings – original essays along with summaries and analyses of published articles, reports, monographs, and books that make educational issues more accessible and understandable to education consumers.

For more information about the Education Consumers Foundation, visit the organization's website at www.education-consumers.com or contact:

Dr. John Stone, President
Education Consumers Foundation
1655 North Fort Myers Drive, Suite 700
Arlington, VA 22209
Phone: 703-248-2611
Email: professor@education-consumers.com